

Status Update

OC/MIC Special Sessions:

Fuel Requirements for Black Start Resources

Janell Fabiano
Sr. Stakeholder Process Specialist
Market Implementation Committee
July 10, 2019

Considering additional fuel assurance requirements, for new and existing black start resources, to ensure the black start fleet can be fuel assured beyond their primary fuel source, in the event the primary fuel source is unavailable.

- July, 2018 - Problem Statement and Issue Charge approved by MRC
- Assignment - Dual - OC and MIC
- Work started – January, 2019
- March, 2019 - Last OC/MIC updates

- Level of Fuel Assurance
- Universal Black Start Fuel Assurance Requirements
- Requirements by Primary Fuel to meet run hour requirement
- Testing and Verification
- Compensation
- Implementation

- Education provided (June 11 meeting)
 - Statistics on current levels of fuel assurance for existing Black Start resources in PJM
 - Analysis of system restoration impact of non-fuel assured Black Start resources being unavailable
 - Review of projected cost impact for different levels of fuel assurance
- Three Packages
 - PJM, IMM, Calpine

Next OC/MIC: FRBSR meeting - August 6

1. Finalizing packages
2. Poll within special session group
3. Contingent votes to be held at OC and MIC, Fall - 2019