

Voting & Polling Results Standardization

Michele Greening, Manager
Stakeholder Process & Engagement
Stakeholder Process Forum
February 22, 2022

- According to Manual 34, detailed voting reports are only permitted to be shared at the Members Committee and all other stakeholder committees share voting results in aggregate form.
 - Specific voting details, including who voted and how are considered to be confidential and sensitive information.
- Standards will provide consistency across stakeholder committees and groups and protect data integrity.

Sharing Results:

- Materials will have consistent approach in data and format across committees and groups.
- With the exception of the MC, results will be shared in aggregate detail only
 - Total # of responses, Total values in each response grouping, and Percentage
- We will refrain from showing details in specific break-down such as number of affiliates or unique responders.

Exceptions:

- Need to solicit input or feedback that requires qualitative responses and attribution.
 - Advanced stakeholder notice required.
- Specific to polling, if the volume of non-member participants is significantly high and is found to affect the polling results, non-member participation can be designated when reporting results to stakeholders and the Parent Committee.
